

Crook County Fair Board
PO Box 473
Sundance, WY 82729

Special Meeting – January 31, 2022

Chairman Ray Marchant called the special board meeting of the Crook County Fair Board to order at 6:55 pm. The Pledge of Allegiance was said.

Board members present: Justin Gerstner, Ray Marchant, Josh Franzen, Lonny Bossman via online

Board member absent: Amy Pravecek

Employee present: Carolyn Fowler

Guests: Bobbi Butler, Austin Butler, Whitney Butler, Joe Baron via online meeting, Tanja Miller, Laurie Schwabauer, Hugh Jenkins, Dana McInerney, Stacey Williams via online meeting, Sara Fleenor via online meeting, Brian Kennah

Discussion was held about the Livestock Committee procedures, officers, and elections. Joe discussed the by-laws of the livestock committee, how they are written and what is actually being done. He explained the process for updating the by-laws.

The Fair Board will advertise for interested persons to be considered for the open positions of the Livestock Committee. Tanja Miller suggested having two people from each community to represent everyone equally. Justin moved to fill the vacancies of the four positions on the Livestock Committee at the next regular fair board meeting, Josh seconded, all ayes, motion carried.

Discussion was held about modifications for the show ring and pig barn. Sara talked about the building she has coming, 16x20 to be placed where the cinderblock bathrooms currently are. The plan is to house local beef projects before fair. Making modifications to the beef barn was discussed.

Meeting adjourned at 8:11 pm.

The next regular meeting is scheduled for Monday, February 7, 2022 at 6:00 pm.

Amy Pravecek, Secretary